Special Education Parent Advisory Council

If your child has an Individualized Education Program (IEP) or a 504 Plan, you should know about SEPAC.

SEPAC is a state-mandated volunteer organization serving as a resource and advisor to parents of children with special needs in Oxford from preschool through high school

Purpose:

- Participate effectively in the planning, development and evaluation of special services programs
- Provide information on special education topics and issues
- Encourage networking among parents and guardians
- Encourage and facilitate an effective partnership between parents and school administration and staff

Who Can Join:

- Open to parents/guardians of children with special needs
- Open to anyone interested in special needs education in Oxford

JUST COME TO OUR MONTHLY MEETING ~ IT'S THAT EASY!

Parents are invited to bring forth topics of interest, comments and suggestions relating to special education. We provide a forum to share information and discuss matters of relative interest regarding our children
